PACIFIC NORTHWEST PARK & RECREATION FOUNDATION
ANNOUNCES SCHOLARSHIP

The University of Montana School of Forestry announced that May 5 is the deadline for applications for Pacific Northwest Parks & Recreation Foundation Scholarships.

The scholarships provide $250 to qualified graduate or undergraduate students majoring in the fields of recreation and/or parks management or leisure services management.

Undergraduates must have completed their sophomore year and intend to complete requirements within the major field.

Graduate students interested in applying for the Dr. Helen McCabe Scholarship must either have worked professionally in the park and recreation field in the Pacific Northwest for at least two years or have returned to graduate school in park and recreation or related curriculum.

Applications and further information about the scholarships are available from the forestry school office, room 110, Forestry Building.
